Abbotsford Christian School HOST FAMILY CONTRACT

Please check off boxes and sign at the bottom

- The host family will provide a safe, secure, Christian home environment for the student.
- The host family will do its best to ensure that the student abides by the school's Code of Conduct.
- All members of the host family agree to host the student and are willing to involve the student in activities and outings.
- The host family members are proficient in English and will speak English when the student is present.
- The host family will provide a bedroom for the student with a bed, desk, dresser and closet.
- The host family will provide the student nutritional meals three times each day as well as snacks.
- The host family will provide transportation to and from school, if necessary. Transportation to different activities should be provided by homestay parents if the request is reasonable (three times a week is reasonable).
- The host family will secure medical treatment for the student in the event of illness or injury without liability. The family will then notify the International Student Coordinator.
- If the host family is going away, they will find a place for the student to stay or find someone to supervise the student while at home. The family must inform the International Student Coordinator, and the arrangements must be approved by the Coordinator. Under no circumstances may the student be left alone at night.
- The host family will communicate with the International Student Coordinator if there are any concerns or unusual incidents as soon as possible.
- The host family will not expect students to maintain the house or yard, babysit children, or cook meals.
- The host family members do not use alcohol or drugs.
- If the host family wishes to terminate the homestay, it will be on reasonable grounds; the family will allow the International Student Coordinator one month to find a new family to host the student.
- All members of the host family over the age of 18 agree to have a Criminal Record check at their own expense and will give the document to the International Student Coordinator.
- The homestay family will receive a monthly compensation of $750.00 on the first day of the month unless different arrangements are acceptable with both the student and the family.

I understand and agree to the contract outlined above.
